Program in Judaic Studies

The Program in Judaic Studies offers a limited number of summer grants to graduate students for summer study and/or research. Students from all humanities departments or social science disciplines are eligible. These grants may be used for pre-dissertation work (e.g., language study, specialized summer programs in Israel or countries relevant to the topic of study, etc.), or for dissertation research related to Judaic Studies.

Additional materials required (submit via hard copy to the funding source):

- A letter of recommendation from the advisor or faculty member who is familiar with the student's research.
