OUTDOOR BBQ AT THE GRADUATE COLLEGE

Whether you are an incoming student or have been here for a while, join us for a BBQ at the Old Graduate College to make new friends and see old ones! New and established Princeton University graduate students are welcome. In the event of rain, this event will occur on Wednesday, September 28. This event will feature entertainment provided by the Graduate Student Government and a BBQ menu that will be announced. All attendees will swipe their PUIDs to attend using either a meal from their meal plan or one of their 6 free meals for the semester provided they are a regularly enrolled graduate student, year G1-G5, not currently living in the Graduate College or otherwise on a meal plan. Paw Points and Student Charge will also be accepted as payment. Cash and credit card will NOT be accepted. Questions, contact Olivia at omartel@princeton.edu

BATHING IN MOONLIGHT

When Father Monroe discovers that Marcela and her family are struggling, he offers a warmth and kindness unlike anything she has ever experienced. Small acts of generosity blossom into love as the lines between vocation and passion begin to blur. Artistic Director Emily Mann and playwright Nilo Cruz reunite for the first time since the Pulitzer Prize-winning Anna in the Tropics with this lyrical new play. Seats are limited and are only available for Princeton graduate students. Contact Olivia at omartel@princeton.edu to reserve a ticket by Wednesday, September 14 indicating your name, PUID number (the nine digit number on the front of your PUID card), and the last two digits of your social security number. To bring a guest that is not a PU student you would need to buy their ticket for $15 and indicate that you will bring a guest when you first email. Please note, VSRCs are not eligible for the Tiger Ticket program.

LAKESIDE COMMUNITY FALL WELCOME BBQ

We’re having a barbecue so you can get to know your neighbors! So join our picnic by bringing a towel, blanket or beach chair to sit on. If you’d like, show your school pride by wearing a Princeton shirt. We’ll capture the love in a group picture for our Grad School Facebook, Instagram and Twitter accounts. In the event of rain, we will hold the event in the Lawrence 14 Community Room. Contact Olivia at omartel@princeton.edu for more information.

Photographs and recordings taken at these events by anyone authorized by Princeton University may be used in publications, both electronic and print, at the discretion of the University.
