Mellon/ACLS | Public Fellows Program

The American Council of Learned Societies (ACLS) is pleased to announce the eighth annual competition of the Mellon/ACLS Public Fellows Program. This initiative places humanities Ph.D.s in substantive roles in diverse nonprofit and government organizations, demonstrating that the knowledge and capacities developed in the course of earning a doctoral degree in the humanities have wide application beyond the academy. The fellowship carries an annual stipend of $67,500, health insurance coverage for the fellow, a relocation allowance, and up to $3,000 in professional development funds.

Applicants must possess US citizenship or permanent resident status and have a PhD in the humanities or humanistic social sciences conferred between September 1, 2014 and June 22, 2018. Applicants must have defended and deposited their dissertations no later than April 6, 2018. The deadline for submitted applications is Wednesday, March 14, 2018, 9 pm EDT.

Applications will be accepted only through the ACLS online application system (OFA). Applicants should not contact any of the organizations directly. For complete information please visit here.

PU Library | Consolidation of Online Search Services

Reminder: please note the consolidation of our online search services.

Princeton University Library will be consolidating online search services at the end of the fall semester. Effective January 29, 2018, the 20-year-old “Main Catalog” will be retired, and we will offer a single Catalog (formerly known as the “New Catalog”). If you have any questions or would like search assistance, please contact us or find our site here.

Princeton Research Day | Application Now Open
Thursday, May 10, 2018
Frist Campus Center

Princeton Research Day is a celebration of the research and creative endeavors by our undergraduates, graduate students, postdoctoral researchers and fellows, and other early career researchers. The third-annual campus-wide event will feature poster presentations, exhibits, performances, selected talks and an award ceremony for outstanding contributions. The all-day event is free and open to the public. We encourage all academic departments and centers at Princeton to reserve May 10, 2018, for this special event, and to support participation by your undergraduates, graduate students, postdoctoral researchers and fellows, and other early career researchers.

Dates to remember:
Dec. 1: Call for applications to present at PRD18
Feb. 16: Priority application deadline
April 2: Presenters informed of presentation format
May 10: Princeton Research Day
