Are you serious about improving your public speaking and presentation skills? GradSpeak is a monthly workshop series designed to help enhance graduate student’s public speaking skills in an encouraging and supportive environment. Each session will have an impromptu topic (e.g. your research in a nutshell, someone who inspires you) and will focus on a technical skill such as body language, diction or eye contact with the audience. Workshops are co-sponsored by the Graduate School and Princeton Writes. Space is limited to 10 graduate students, so please RSVP to pwrites@princeton.edu.

TEACHING AND MENTORING OPPORTUNITIES

Graduate Student Academic Success Consultations
Trained professionals can collaborate with you to develop an individualized approach to graduate school that draws upon your unique profile of strengths and is tailored to the specific demands of your research, courses, teaching, and life. These confidential consultations focus on your personal priorities and tasks. Contact Dr. Laura Murray at lcmurray@princeton.edu for more information and to schedule an appointment.

Leading with a Ph.D. | Curating Your Community: Mentorship Matters
Saturday, January 12th, 9:30am-4:30pm
Frist Multipurpose Room B

All graduate students benefit from supportive mentorship. While you receive guidance from a faculty adviser on your research and academic progress, mentorship expands beyond the adviser/advisee relationship to a broader community of professors and professionals who may support your development as a researcher, scholar and beyond. The goal of this conference is to share resources and techniques to help you curate a community of mentors that will assist you in reaching your career and personal goals.

Conference Schedule:
9:30 am - Registration and Coffee
9:45 am - Welcome and Introductions
10:00 am - Keynote Address: "The Science of Mentorship" presented by Lilian Eby, Professor, Industrial-Organizational Psychology; Program Director, Owens Behavioral Institute for Research; Director, ECHO (Enhancing Connections and Health in Organization) Lab, University of Georgia.
11:00 am - Alumni Panel: Success through Mentorship
12:00 pm - Lunch: Career Conversations with Graduate Alumni
1:45 pm - Workshop I: Curating Your Community
3:00 pm - Break
3:15 pm - Workshop II: Developing and Clarifying your Mentoring Expectations at Princeton
4:30 pm - Closing Remarks

Space is limited so be sure to reserve your spot!
