In this Issue | February 8

- Princeton Research Day | Crafting Your Project Summary
- Science & Intersectionality Workshop | Join us for Discussion on Science & Society
- The McGraw Center | Upcoming Programs
- Have International Travel Plans? | What all International Students Need to Know About the Visa Process & More!
- Fulbright U.S. Student Program Information Session
- Leading with Purpose | Bobbi Silten
- 8th Annual International Biotech & Healthcare Case Competition
- Princeton Research Day | Priority Application Deadline Next Friday

Visit our Website

Princeton Research Day | Crafting Your Project Summary
Tuesday, February 13
12 - 1pm, 330 Frist (Lunch served)
Are you interested in applying to present at Princeton Research Day? Do you have questions about the application process? This workshop, led by the Princeton Research Day team, will talk you through the application, workshopping the necessary elements for you to pitch your project effectively to a general audience. RSVP here.

Science & Intersectionality Workshop | Join us for Discussion on Science & Society

Thursday, February 15 & Friday, February 16
4:30-7pm, Frist Campus Center, 200 Level
Come learn and discuss with campus and community members! Topics include: the consideration of science as an institution and its place in a historical context, the intersection of the scientific community and society, and the individual scientist's responsibility to engage with contemporary social issues. Each evening will start with a number of concurrent presentations to choose from, followed by an informal reception with food and space for conversation and debriefing. Join us for an amazing lineup of speakers and workshops! Complete information here and here. Sponsored by the Princeton Citizen Scientists along with co-sponsors: Black Graduate Caucus | Graduate Women of Color Caucus | GWiSE | Intersecting Queer Identities | Latino Graduate Student Association | LGBT Center | Princeton Advocates for Justice | Women's Center, with special thanks to Campus Conversations and the Council on Science & Technology

Graduate Pedagogy Workshops
Wednesday, February 14

Graduate Learning Program
Friday, February 16
Innovate with Online Teaching | Information & Brainstorming Session
12 - 1:20pm, 330 Frist

Join us for an information session for the “Innovate with Online Teaching” graduate student competition. Participants will get a short introduction to online teaching tools and have the opportunity to brainstorm projects and get feedback from McGraw staff on ideas you’re thinking of proposing. The participants will also learn more about the application process and how projects will be evaluated. Lunch will be provided.

Please note that this session cannot be applied toward the Teaching Transcript pedagogy workshop requirement.

Seating is limited; please RSVP by February 9 to reserve a space.

Wednesday, February 14
Master Class on Teaching with Professor Ruha Benjamin
4:30-5:45pm, McCormick 101

The Master Class on Teaching is a series featuring distinguished teachers from across the disciplines, sponsored by the McGraw Center for Teaching and Learning, the Office of the Dean of the College, and the Office of the Dean of the Faculty.

Please note that this session cannot be applied toward the Teaching Transcript pedagogy workshop requirement.

Please note: No RSVP needed for this event.

Thursday, February 22
Troubleshooting Your Precept – Leading Discussions, Solving Problems
12:00-1:20pm, 330 Frist

Tired of doing homework problems on the board? Can’t get your students to talk on topic? Come share your experiences with fellow preceptors and a panel of experienced Graduate Teaching Fellows from the McGraw Center. We will discuss strategies that you can use in your classroom to address your specific concerns. These workshops are directed at both new graduate Assistants in Instruction and

Time Mastery: Preventing Overwhelm with Google Calendar
12-1:20pm, (lunch provided)
330 Frist Campus Center

Sometimes feel overwhelmed by all of your demands? Are you missing out on opportunities? Use Google Calendar as an “external mind” to capture all your tasks, minimize stress, and free your mind for your academic work. Build on what you know about Google Calendar to maximize its usefulness while also learning innovative strategies for calendaring and planning, such as:

- Using a calendar as part of an “external mind” to ease stress, pursue goals and make effective decisions
- Planning in accordance with your current patterns of behavior (sleep, work, etc.)
- Distinguishing realistic and optimistic planning
- Collecting self-data and revising accordingly for more effective planning

Please RSVP by February 15 to reserve a spot.

McGraw Center Graduate Student Academic Consultations

Trained Ph.D.s and advanced Ph.D. students from a variety of disciplines can collaborate with you to develop an individualized approach to graduate school that draws upon your unique profile of strengths and is tailored to the specific demands of your research, courses, teaching, and life. These confidential consultations focus on your personal priorities and tasks. Make an appointment here. Look for appointment slots which indicate “Graduate Consultant” next to the consultant’s name.
experienced AIs who want to invigorate their classrooms with new teaching strategies. Lunch will be provided. Seating is limited; please RSVP by February 20 to reserve a space.

Have International Travel Plans? | What all International Students Need to Know About the Visa Process & More!

Thursday, March 1
12pm, Simpson MPR B60B

Are you an international student who is thinking about academic international travel plans for the summer or next academic year? Do you have questions about the planning process or what information and documentation you will need? Join us on to address your concerns about enrollment, funding, visa wait times, and ways to speak with your adviser about your visa process.

We will be joined by senior graduate student who will speak to you about how they tackled the process and ways they've found to proactively address potential issues. We will also have Davis International Center and Graduate School staff on hand to answer questions you may have about the policies and procedures that impact the visa process. Lunch will be provided! To make sure this session addresses student needs we welcome you to submit questions at the time of your RSVP.

Space is limited so RSVP by Friday, February 23 to reserve your spot.

Fulbright U.S. Student Program Information Session

Tuesday, March 6
4:30–6:00 pm, A71 Simpson International Building

This session presents an overview of the Fulbright U.S. Student Program and Fulbright representatives will be on hand to address your specific questions. This program awards 9–12-month international fellowships to nearly 140 countries to recent college graduates, alumni, and graduate students. Recipients undertake academic research projects, gain NGO or clinical experience, teach English, or, in a limited number of cases, enroll in a one-year master's program abroad. Applicants must be U.S. citizens. Please review the Fulbright website for more details.

Leading with Purpose | Bobbi Silten
Wednesday, March 7
12 Noon, 243 Frist

Join us for a very special event featuring Bobbi Silten, Former EVP, Global Talent & Sustainability, Gap Inc. and President, Gap Foundation. Hear thoughts on leadership and stories on values, reflection and fears from a purpose-driven leader. With over three decades of corporate experience, Silten provides a practical perspective on leadership through a lecture and discussion with Professor Anne Anlin Cheng, professor of English and director of American Studies. Lunch will be served.

RSVP here by Wednesday, February 28.

---

8th Annual International Biotech & Healthcare Case Competition

Friday, April 6
Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore

The Johns Hopkins Graduate Student Consulting Club (JHGCC) is hosting the 8th Annual International Biotech & Healthcare Case Competition at Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore on Friday, April 6th, 2018. Please see here for more information.

If you’re looking for team members to attend this and future case competitions this year, please sign up here and reach out to potential team members.

Princeton University Graduate Consulting Club

---

Princeton Research Day | Priority Application Deadline Next Friday

Thursday, May 10, 2018
Frist Campus Center

Princeton Research Day is a celebration of the research and creative endeavors by our undergraduates, graduate students, postdoctoral researchers and fellows, and other early career researchers. The third-annual campus-wide event will feature poster presentations, exhibits, performances, selected talks and an award ceremony for outstanding contributions. The all-day event is free and open to the public. We encourage all academic departments and centers at Princeton to reserve May 10, 2018, for this special event, and to support participation by your undergraduates, graduate students, postdoctoral researchers and fellows, and other early career researchers.

The application is really easy. You don't need to have a completed project to present--wherever you're currently at with your work we want to hear about it. There are also cash prizes that range from $250-$750.
Dates to remember:

- Feb. 16: Priority application deadline
- April 2: Presenters informed of presentation format
- May 10: Princeton Research Day

More details here

Questions? Contact here

Princeton Research Day is a collaborative initiative between the offices of the Dean of the College, the Dean of the Faculty, the Dean for Research and the Dean of the Graduate School.

---

Part of The Graduate School’s mission is to ensure that our graduate students have the skills they need to succeed professionally as well as academically. Our office and campus partners provide a full range of professional development opportunities and resources for graduate students. We hope you will take full advantage of all the Princeton graduate education has to offer.

Get involved and grow!

Stay Connected

- Facebook
- Twitter
- Instagram