PLEASE CHECK-IN AT THE FRIST MULTIPURPOSE LOBBY AND GET YOUR ORIENTATION WRISTBAND ANYTIME BETWEEN 12:00PM – 4:00PM (YOU WILL NEED TO WEAR THE WRISTBAND FOR THE TWO DAY ORIENTATION)

Fostering Inclusion (HUMANITIES AND SOCIAL SCIENCES PHD STUDENTS AND ALL MASTERS STUDENTS)
1:00 PM –2:30 PM, Frist Multipurpose Rooms A/B/C
Cheri Burgess, Director, Institutional Equity and EEO, Office of the Provost
Regan Crotty, Director, Title IX Administration, Office of the Provost

This 90-minute workshop is designed to assist you in honing your leadership skills to develop positive interpersonal interactions with a diverse cohort of colleagues and foster a respectful environment and will include a discussion of the impact of bias, stereotypes, and micro-aggressions. Regan Crotty, Director of Title IX Administration, and Cheri Burgess, Director for Institutional Equity and EEO, will serve as facilitators and will use videos and small-group discussions of real-life scenarios, and will also provide information about campus resources.

Understanding Your Costs and Funding (ENGINEERING AND NATURAL SCIENCES PHD STUDENTS)
1:00 PM –1:45 PM, Frist Theatre 301
Mary Bechler, Senior Associate Dean for Finance and Administration
Jacqueline Knowlton, Assistant Dean for Finance and Administration

Graduate students are funded and paid in multiple ways. This session provides an overview of Princeton’s policies and funding structure as well as different financial resources that are available to you over your course of study. It will also provide information to help you make informed decisions about your financial planning.

Choosing an Adviser and Working with the Adviser You’ve Chosen (ENGINEERING AND NATURAL SCIENCES PHD STUDENTS)
1:45 PM –2:30 PM, Frist Theatre 301
Christine Murphy, Assistant Dean, Academic Affairs
Vanessa Gonzalez-Perez, Assistant Dean, Diversity Initiatives in the Natural Sciences

Doctoral research is conducted under the guidance of a faculty adviser. Some students apply to work with a specific faculty member, while others undergo a faculty adviser search during the first year. While there are different ways to match with an adviser, all Ph.D. students are required to have an adviser. This session will focus on providing answers to questions students have about faculty advisers and provide students with tools to developing a productive relationship with their adviser. This session will include a student panel with representatives from the natural sciences and engineering divisions.
