MINDFULNESS AND MEDITATION LUNCH: FINDING YOUR RYDE
A sense of belonging among kindred spirits can be one of the best parts of life—and also difficult to find. We’ll also practice a Mindfulness Meditation related to this theme. Facilitated by Joe Cooper, Psychologist, UHS. A healthy lunch will be served. The event is free. This event is open to Princeton University Graduate students. Spouses/partners may also attend with permission. Sign-ups are encouraged but a number of walk-ins will be allowed. Sign up with Olivia at omartel@princeton.edu. Sponsored by the Graduate School & University Health Services.

SUNDAY - 6:45-10PM
MERCER COUNTY PARK
SAW-HET OWL BANDING
Commission naturalists will lead you into the woods to find saw-whet (tiny, adorable!) owls so well-hidden they’re usually impossible to spot. We’ll take a short hike, join in a net check, meet a few saw-whets up close while they’re banded, and learn about owl ecology and conservation. The program runs from 7:30 p.m. – 9:30 p.m. We’ll leave campus at 6:45 p.m. and return by 10:00 p.m. Availability is limited and first-come, first-served, so please sign up in advance. The Graduate School will cover $10 of the $20 participation fee. Your cost: $10 cash. Sponsored by the Graduate School.

TUESDAY - 4-4:45PM
