We are experimenting with new recipes and making tried and true comfort foods that remind us of home. We would love for you to share your favorite recipes with the Graduate School so we can feature your masterpieces in our digital #PrincetonGradLife Community Cookbook! The Cookbook will be designed and sent to the entire Graduate School Community at the end of the September, so please be sure to get your recipes to us by midnight on September 30th so we can feature you! We highly encourage partners, spouses and families of grad students to submit as well. After you submit our form, we would love for you to tag us on social media at #PrincetonGradLife the next time you make your recipe! Submit here: https://forms.gle/cubGkKPxPH38qSmG6 Questions?
