FRIDAY 5-6:30 PM
LAKESIDE PATIO
FLI SOCIAL HOUR
Do you identify as a first-generation graduate student, broadly defined? Join us for an open conversation on the “hidden curriculum” and to connect with other self-identifying first-generation graduate students at Princeton over snacks and soda. We’ll also discuss the campus resources available to first-generation, low-income students. The first five students to register and attend will win a copy of “A Field Guide to Graduate School” by Jessica McCrory Calarco. Sign up at https://forms.gle/7MECBNNA8XknNwuL9 by 8 pm on Thursday, July 1st. Email Lauren at lkonken@princeton.edu if you have any questions.

FRIDAY 8-10 PM
PALMER SQUARE LAWN
MOVIE NIGHT ON THE GREEN: SING
Bring your own blanket or camp chair and enjoy a family-friendly outdoor movie under the stars in Palmer Square! Set in a world like ours but entirely inhabited by animals, SING stars Buster Moon, a dapper Koala who presides over a once-grand theater that has fallen on hard times. Buster is an eternal optimist who loves his theater above all and will do anything to preserve it. Now facing the crumbling of his life’s ambition, he has one final chance to restore his fading jewel to its former glory by producing the world’s greatest singing competition. To RSVP fill out this form: https://forms.gle/2bnCuRqyyCSN8eHp9

TUESDAY 10-11 AM
CAMPUS WIDE
CAMPUS LANDSCAPE PRIVATE TOUR
A private tour of the campus’s landscape and its plants/horticulture led by the Assistant Director of Campus Grounds. We will meet on the main campus and the tour should last a little over an hour. Participants will also be in a drawing to enjoy a coffee/tea with the event. Space is limited - sign up here: https://forms.gle/dfw4PPoovToCP2vF7

All in-person events will be managed in accordance with current University health and safety policies. Please visit https://spring2021.princeton.edu to stay informed.

Please note: all times are Eastern Daylight Savings Time. Space is limited at all events - sign up early! All events are sponsored by the Graduate School.

FRIDAY 6-8 PM
OLYMPICS WATCH PARTY
Celebrate the world coming together by watching a replay of the 2021 opening ceremonies for the Tokyo 2021 Olympics with your fellow graduate students. Globally inspired snacks and drinks will be available. Sign up at https://forms.gle/KtdenzGBYFHW3u9x8 by Thursday, July 22nd at 8 pm. Email Lauren at lkonken@princeton.edu if you have any questions.

TUESDAY NOON-1 PM
MEET UP @ TACORIA BOOK CLUB SHOW & TELL
Join us for our Book Club show and Tell, where you choose the book you want to read and then discuss with others over lunch! Participants will receive a digital or paper copy of a book of their choice via Amazon Prime, compliments of the Graduate School! Book price limit is $20. Books must be Prime eligible. There are up to 10 spots available for the book club, sign up to enter the drawing by filling out the following form: https://forms.gle/qEpHhQ6VUoXoETY9. Please plan on meeting at Tacoria at 12 noon, where we will grab lunch before heading to campus and sitting down together to eat and chat! The signup closes at 1 pm on July 1st. Those successful in the drawing will receive their book shortly after 7/1 and will read at their own accord until the meetup. Questions? Email Kevin Fleming at kevinaf@princeton.edu. Please do not sign up for this book club unless you know you can attend. If you sign up, receive a book, and fail to show up at the meeting, you may not be invited to attend future book clubs.
